Cordial greetings,

This proposal is one of the most rock stupid things I've ever seen, throwing out a century of a established copyright law for the benefit of thieving technocrats. If there was actually any integrity in this administration the proposal would have been laughed off as the childishly idiotic nonsense that it is, but since that's not the case, I will simply register my obvious opposition to this stupid, stupid, stupid imperial decree.

Sincerely,
A Tranny Bitch
