

Pamela Masonm

I believe every American should be able to yay or nay bills that are up for vote. We should be able to login using our Social Security numbers and vote that way. Once the voting ends, our representative should be legally obligated to uphold our wishes.