

2/26/2025 via FDMS

Tammera Murray

Im ok with being a leader in modern technology but not at the expense of human sovereignty. The AI should be helpful to humans but not be given the ability to override human direction or esteem themselves better than humans. The AI should not be given the ability to independent decision making that affects human lives and should have protocols and be programmed to maintain human life as sacred.